MCGIVERN: They were McGivern's own people, and they were his deadliest enemies. They were the outlaws who had supplied the Indians with the Winchesters that had killed his woman, and for that, they would die. To get his revenge, McGivern had to take on the deadliest gunrunners ever to strap on six-shooters, and whoever survived the bloody showdown would be the law of the West.

THE HARD MEN: Loftus Buckmaster owned half the valley and he aimed to own the rest. But Krag Soderstrom had other ideas. All he needed were men who were desperate and crazy enough to ride with him—men who despised Buckmaster and everything he stood for. Although Buckmaster wanted to put the newcomer in a pine box, he hadn't reckoned on Soderstrom's hard, violent crew. The valley would ring with bullets and run with blood in a battle as bitter and deadly as the hate that spawned it.
