No me alcanzará la vida (Spanish Edition) Del palacio Celia

Una exploración fascinante de nuestro pasado, una reivindicación de los héroes anónimos que forjaron la historia, una exploración al papel de las mujeres en el mundo y un retrato vivo de la Perla de Occidente.

Siglo XIX: un país convulsionado por la guerra entre conservadores y liberales, los conflictos políticos con la iglesia, las invasiones extranjeras y la pérdida de más de la mitad del territorio nacional...

La historia: Después de quedar viuda en condiciones, Sofía decide mudarse desde Durango hasta Guadalajara para reiniciar su vida. Ahí conoce a Miguel Cruz-Aedo, poeta y militar idealista que dará todo por defender sus principios. Juntos vivirán una de las historias de amor más apasionantes, en medio de batallas épicas por el honor, los sueños literarios y los ideales políticos. Los amantes descubrirán las intrigas y traiciones entre conservadores y liberales, el erotismo y los celos, las terribles epidemias que atemorizan a la población, las tertulias literarias, la ciudad sitiada, así como los paisajes, la gente y las costumbres de aquella época.

El tiempo presente: Después de vivir en París con su hermano, S. regresa a Guadalajara para investigar a las sociedades literarias del siglo XIX y rehacer su vida, tras una decepción amorosa. Pronto se encuentra con los recuerdos y los fantasmas de su pasado, ante los cuales sólo le queda un camino: apasionarse siguiendo las pistas de Miguel Cruz-Aedo e ir descubriendo los encantos de la Guadalajara actual, una ciudad llena de fantasía, luz y un ensueño: una Guadalajara con mar.
