Playtime means very different things to these two spirited friends

Pip likes to play. Actually, he LOVES to play. Especially with his best friend, Nico. Pip has lots of ideas: they can play ball, play hopscotch, play explorers... the possibilities are endless.

Nico likes to play too--his cello, that is. Nico's more interested in his cello than in Pip's other games. If Pip could only get Nico to just... pay.... ATTENTION!

Michelle Lee's warm, exuberant illustrations show readers that with a little imagination, friends can always find a way to play together—no matter how different.
