Behaviorismo Radical (Portuguese Edition) Kester Carrara

Análise política e econômica das duas últimas décadas do século 20, esta obra destaca o papel das instituições criadas pelo acordo de Bretton Woods para forçar os países da América Latina a adotar os “ajustes” econômicos da cartilha neoliberal. Com ênfase no Grupo Banco Mundial, busca esclarecer como e porque essas nações foram capturadas por promessas não cumpridas e conclui que alguns países, entre os quais o Brasil, aprenderam algo fundamental naquele período: que somente o país emissor da moeda de curso internacional pode viver sob déficits interno e externo.
