This book is a sampler of some of the more unusual or out-of-the-ordinary gifts available in stores and on the internet. It includes items ranging from do-it-yourself satellites to animal tracking kits to pocket synthesizers. In addition to items to buy there are things you can donate to (such as the GiveNow card or humanitarian relief efforts) and things you can learn from (such as free college lectures). Whenever possible items included in the book have been researched to make sure they are currently available, come from reputable suppliers, and work as advertised. The selection of gifts covers a wide price range and different areas of interest but they all have one thing in common - they aren't the usual gifts you see advertised every day. Take a look inside and with a little luck you may find that unique, thought-provoking, oddball or hard-to-find gift you've been searching for.
