15 ordinary men they would call themselves. Though they come from widely varied backgrounds, the individuals in this book are alike in their willingness to serve, their strong leadership abilities, and their undeviating testimonies of the Lord Jesus Christ. There are stories of danger and adventure, of racial prejudice and bigotry, of material and spiritual hardship, of feelings of self-doubt and inadequacy, and of love and pain. 15 stories of the men united in their love for their fellowman and their willingness to help the Church accomplish its missionary work.
