[illegible]

Bhaishajya Guru, the Medicine Buddha is the major Buddha in the east pure land. The book explains clearly 12 great vows made by the Medicine Master when he preached Buddhism before he became the Buddha and solemn homeland, various benefits, all mature creatures' most excellent merits and mercy vows after he became the Buddha. Amitabha Buddha in the western paradise focuses on guiding all creatures and the dead. Being different from it, the medicine Buddha's vows focus on satisfying all creatures' various desires in the real life such as happiness, longevity, healthy and joy, successful career, good reputation, smoothness, liking, peaceful homeland and others. This book is the notes to Sutra of the Medicine Buddha written by Yi Jing, who explains the meaning of text sentence by sentence. Taking traditional Chinese culture and the current reality into account, the book has its unique significance. 12 lectures tell all subtle moral principles in the sutra. Therefore the readers can fully understand karma truth of the Medicine Buddha and realize all desires in life and even in the future understand the true meaning of life.
