Francisco (Portuguese Edition) Giovanni Miccoli

A história de Francisco de Assis representa um dos pontos chave de todos os acontecimentos dos 2 mil anos de história do cristianismo. Tal vitalidade tampouco se esgota na sua - sempre exemplar - biografia, uma vez que sua extraordinária trajetória de vida se funde profundamente com os eventos históricos da ordem que ele fundou, a qual, em poucas décadas, tornou-se a mais numerosa e animada de toda a cristandade ocidental. Com efeito, o nexo entre a sua original proposta cristã e os rumos perseguidos pela ordem a que deu origem colocam muitos problemas. Surgem ainda várias questões ao se analisar as características e perspectivas reais da experiência religiosa de Francisco e seus primeiros companheiros, confrontando-as com os termos em que foram diversas vezes traduzidas e transmitidas na prática e na memória histórica da Igreja nos séculos subsequentes. Não por acaso, a figura de Francisco, canonizado poucos anos depois de sua morte, virou referência para uma extraordinária variedade de movimentos e possibilidades, com frequência em evidente contradição com o que propõem e sugerem seus próprios escritos. Está nesse labirinto de problemas o aspecto central da longa e ainda muito atual “questão franciscana”, ainda mais intrigante depois da escolha recente do cardeal Bergoglio de, como bispo de Roma, pela primeira vez adotar o nome de Francisco: porque ao Francisco histórico, que facilmente pode ser conhecido nos seus aspectos básicos, somam-se e adicionam-se os tantos Franciscos que a tradição construiu e que continuam a propor múltiplos modelos diferentes de experiência religiosa.
