Identifies the leading players in the market, providing details on brand portfolio and new product launches

Tracks the latest M&A deals that have taken place in the alcoholic beverages sector in Japan

Research and analysis highlights The alcoholic beverages sector in Japan was estimated to be worth $48.75 bn in 2009, with a negative compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 1.8% during 2004-09. Beer, cider & FABs (Flavored alcoholic beverages) was the key market in terms of sector volume sales but was also the fastest declining market in terms of volume sales during 2008-09. The spirits market was the only growing market during the period. The declining sectoral value and volume sales are driven by a decreasing and aging population base, the economic slowdown and depressed consumer sentiments.
