The Little Door Slides Back: Poems Jeff Clark

*But then, from way off, with cranking comes my night, and when it arrives
I go to it like a callboy to a c-note.
--"My Interior"*

"Jeff Clark's poems . . . marry the stoned reveries of our postmodern era with the symbolist bliss of a previous one . . . In meticulously crafted verse and prose poems, The Little Door Slides Back offers the reader glimpses of a shadow world, seen by a visionary who has a clear strategy for depicting them." --*Ruth Andrews, Rain Taxi

"A 120-page spell . . . This is a beautiful work whose accuracy edges on the uncanny. Within, among, and around it all is presence, an almost hallucinogenic immediacy in which everything is seen and is in turn seeing." --Cole Swenson, American Letters & Commentary

"Clark integrates fin-de-siècle richness, hallucinatory vision, and a gothicism extracted from the bleak cul-de-sacs of postmodern life . . . constructing a flaneur who is both terrified and bemused by the world he enters as 'the little door slides back.'" --John Yau, Boston Review

Diana Keller:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Little Door Slides Back: Poems can make you feel more interested to read.
