Level Three Leadership: Getting Below the Surface (4th Edition) James G. Clawson

This book focuses on the principles of leadership that managers can use to influence the thinking and feeling of others, rather than just their behavior.

Clawson introduces the following concepts: the leadership point of view, the diamond model of leadership, self-leadership, human behavior, strategic thinking, ethical behavior, and managing the energy in yourself and those around you.

Level Three Leadership prepares students and practicing managers to understand and apply principles of leadership.
