When her father passes away, Amber's life becomes a living hell. Forced to move out and fend for herself, she has to rely on her looks and might even have to lose her innocence...

But on the night of her debut she sees Jared Harlan, her dad's handsome best friend, in the crowd. She's always had a crush on the older man, though it's always remained her deepest secret. In just a few moments, he gathers her in his protective arms and whisks her away.

When he insists on letting her stay with him, Amber knows that he's the one she wants to have hard and without protection!
