Megan Donnelly is searching for Mr. Right. Jack Meredith would be perfect except he's her best friend. She shares her secrets, her dreams, even her dating catastrophes with him. She's not his type and he's never shown that kind of interest in her.

A romance with her is not what he wants. Jack knows Megan is the only girl for him but he hesitates; once he crosses that platonic line there's no going back. If she's as tired of serial dating as he thinks, it's time to make his move even if it risks their friendship.

Will Megan ever realize she doesn't need someone just like Jack when she can have the real thing?
