Weiten's PSYCHOLOGY: THEMES AND VARIATIONS, Ninth Edition, provides you with a survey of psychology that is thought-provoking yet readable--making the subject easy and enjoyable to learn. Weiten's student-friendly approach integrates several themes (for instance, our behavior is shaped by our cultural heritage) to help you see connections among various research areas. These themes, along with vivid illustrations that complement the text descriptions, real-life examples, and learning aids that focus your study, all help you gain an understanding of big-picture concepts.
