Scambio di binari (Italian Edition) Rita Gilioli

Alice e Agata in comune hanno solo l'iniziale del nome, per il resto le loro esistenze non potrebbero essere più diverse.

Una vive in un ex-campo di concentramento insieme a una dozzina di sorelle, in una comunità religiosa guidata da mamme di vocazione. Un mondo tutto femminile, chiuso e impermeabile al mondo esterno.

L'altra vive, invece, in una famiglia dove la madre è costantemente umiliata e violentata nel corpo e nell'anima da un uomo col quale mette al mondo un figlio dopo l'altro.

Attraverso gli occhi di due bambine, nel corso delle loro vite parecchio al di fuori del comune, ci si addentra in due mondi paralleli, il nord e il sud, di un'Italia appena uscita dalla seconda guerra mondiale.

Un'esperienza dura e crudele, cambierà e stravolgerà per sempre la vita di queste due bambine, ormai donne, così profondamente diverse tra di loro.

In Scambio di binari, ispirato a una storia vera, si intrecciano sentimenti tanto contrastanti quanto reali, come l'amore, l'odio, la speranza e la rabbia.

A volte, quando ormai sembra che la propria strada sia stata tracciata in maniera inequivocabile, accade qualcosa che, come in uno scambio, fa deviare completamente il binario della vita, che a questo punto, porta a luoghi sconosciuti, o forse solo dimenticati.
