A Swedish Genealogical Fairytale: Escape into a magical Enchantment Ädventyr

Have you ever wondered about your ancestors, who they were, how they experienced their land's special customs, traditions? This endearing journey back in time, creatively blends a Swedish folklore character, with the author's desire to reconnect to her heritage. The fairytale envelopes readers in engaging historical lifestyles and customs, warms the reader's heart and leaves them longing to experience their own family heritage, customs and traditions.

At Swedish Nobleman Count Bonde's invitation, the author takes us on her long desired journey to the Sweden of her heritage. Serendipitous magic of woods sprite's spell traps her enroute. Will she succeed to get the spell broken? Will she find ancestry answers she has longed for? Will conflicts of her heart find answers? Venture into this creative variation of a Swedish Fairytale wrapped into, and around three traditional celebrations of holidays and family heritage. Poetic, romantic, lyrical, the story captures the essence of the Swedish language, charming readers.

Anyone seeking to know and understand three of the most important traditional Swedish customs, their special holiday foods, will find this book delightful. The Appendix includes three holiday menus, select traditional recipes the book's characters enjoyed. In addition, learn how the author researched her heritage. Find tips and Resources to research one's own heritage.
