Actualmente no existe debate alguno sobre la importancia de la inclusión de la educación social en dichas redes sociales, ya que el debate solo se centra en los beneficios o peligros que conllevan su uso. Los profesionales de la educación social pueden hacer uso de las mismas para aglutinar conocimientos y experiencias, permaneciendo en continuo contacto e interacción, lo que les permitirá desarrollar su trabajo de manera más efectiva. Una vez mostrada la importancia de la relación entre redes sociales y educación social, puede ser fundamental crear una marca en internet, así como espacios que pretendan cubrir este fin. El blog «Educació social? des dels inicis» ofrece una respuesta a esta necesidad al tiempo que proporciona información académica del Grado de Educación Social en la Universitat Oberta de Catalunya, reflexiones personales sobre diferentes aspectos relacionados con dicha profesión, así como un apartado destinado a recoger diversas voces de profesionales de la educación social para fomentar el conocimiento de la profesión y generar un debate en torno a la misma.
