Tasha Wright is young, sexy, and ambitious, with her whole life ahead of her. She thinks she has it all figured out, never thinking in a million years she will run into someone who will change her life forever. Terri is young, fine and sexy as hell, when he first lays eyes on the beautiful Tasha, he knows he has to have her. From the moment they lock eyes there is an undeniable connection. To Tasha not only is this man she meets- attractive, he is sincere, kind, and loving. Terri and Tasha start out with all the makings of a good relationship, with love, and mind blowing sex. When her fairy tale situation turns out to be nothing more than a mere sham; angry and embarrassed, she decides that two can play the game and decides to have some fun of her own. With the possibility of two baby's fathers, side chicks mixed with a serious drug addiction her happy life spins out of control.

Tasha soon realizes that things are not always what they seem and it is time for her move on. The only problem is that Terri is refusing to let go, it is not going to happen on his watch. In this twisted tale of deception and deceit, Tasha must learn how to take care of herself and her children alone. In order for Tasha to learn how to live a life without Terri, she must first set herself free from his grasp. Not sure how to do just that, she must take a roller coaster ride she never expected to have to take on account of the man she loves. Fighting for her life, Tasha must use every bit of strength left to make sure she comes out on top. Tasha learns that people change and life doesn't always end up how we plan. Through the darkness she comes out on top for herself and for her children, but at what cost. After all is said and done Ms. Wright realizes Love Is War.
